

SPARWOOD COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT SOCIETY

This Society is the most recent to be registered in the Elk Vally as of the date of this time captule's sealing.

This organization was made up of all the local clubs and societies interested in developing culturiel and recreational facilities for the benifit of the general public in this area.

The first project we have undertaken was to build and opperate a 1000 seat Community Hall with a Shooting Range in the ground floor, and all related rooms relative to the proper running of this Facility.

We the Charter Members of the Sparwood Community Development Society would like to wish the members of this society for the year 2024 , or the year this letter is next read congradulations and the best of luck in continueing the efforts and intentions we started this 29th day of February, 1984.
